

Fertility Preservation & Family Building Financial Assistance for Cancer Survivors

The high cost of reproductive services can be a barrier for cancer patients who need to undergo fertility preservation treatments quickly, before they begin their cancer treatments. The programs listed below may help offset some of those costs.

The Heart Beat Program is offered by Ferring Pharmaceuticals and provides select fertility medications free of charge for women who are newly diagnosed with cancer. Program details can be found here: For more information about Ferring's Heart Beat program, please call 888.347.3415. <https://www.ferringfertility.com/paying-for-treatment/save-on-your-medication/heart-beat-program/>

LIVESTRONG Fertility offers a financial assistance program for newly diagnosed men and women who are seeking to bank sperm, eggs or embryos prior to cancer treatment. Call us at 855.844.7777 for additional information or to have a navigator contact you.

Team Maggie Team Maggie's purpose is to provide financial assistance to young women and men for the purpose of preserving eggs and sperm. The Team Maggie for a Cure Grant provides fertility assistance grants up to $2,500 to assist residents in the US facing cancer treatments with fertility preservation expenses including, but not limited to, egg retrieval, and up to 1 year of storage fees. <http://www.teammaggieforacure.org/grants>

The SAM Fund provides grants to young adult cancer survivors for a wide range of cancer-associated costs. They offer two categories of family building grants: storage of eggs, embryos or sperm (up to $1,000) and expenses for fertility procedures such as testing, IUI, IVF, gestational carrier, adoption, etc. (up to $4,000). Applications are accepted twice per year. <http://www.thesamfund.org/get-help/grants/>

Tinina Q. Cade Foundation The Tinina Q. Cade Foundation's Family Building Grant is an annual award that provides up to $10,000 to needy infertile families. These grants assist with the costs associated with infertility treatment or domestic adoption. Applications are accepted twice per year. https://cadefoundation.org/savannah_grant.php?id=5

Verna's Purse Financial Assistance for Cancer Survivors Discounted, long-term storage for semen oocyte/ovarian tissue or embryos. <https://www.reprotech.com/verna-s-purse.html>
